

Melodic, serene, flawed, joyful, struggling, pretentious, funny, proud, lousy, beautiful, angry, colorful, sad, Nina Simone, Ornette Coleman, Pharoah Sanders, messy, sincere, cinematic.

Vol III is Perssons Sexa's third album (obviously), full of all of the above. The latest release "Vol II" generated a nomination at the P2 Jazzkatten Awards in Swedish radio as "group of the year". Vol III continues that powerful interplay and colorful expression in all its unpolished charm, and elaborates on mood, sound, rhythm and structure.

In Perssons Sexa's musical universe, conveying emotion and being in the moment stands above anything else. Also, having fun and not taking yourself too damn seriously.

"Jazz is an accident waiting to happen"
