

ANNA AHNLUND "LACKMUSPAPPER"

Lackmuspapper is the follow-up to Anna Ahnlund's debut album Omnejd, which awarded her the title Lyricist of the Year at Manifestgalan 2015.

Anna Ahnlund's poetic Swedish lyrics are emphasized by meandering melodies and surprising harmonies. Her voice stretches boundaries and is accompanied by a genuine ensemble in the borderland between Swedish "progg", improvisation and folk music.

As opposed to Omnejd, which was shaped in the studio during an extended period of time, Lackmuspapper is the result of three creative days in Studio Rymden, Stockholm.

Several of the tracks constitute the one and only take; a desire to create in the moment together with the musicians on the basis of Anna's vocals and guitar playing.

Like on the debut, Anna's engaging and sharp lyrics play an important part. In symbiosis with the music, and mediated by Anna's voice, they acquire an additional dimension.

"On top of it all is Ahnlund's voice, which glides and floats like some kind of wind instrument, singing words and humming wordlessly. It is she who creates the atmosphere, who makes every song." LIRA on Anna Ahnlund's album Omnejd
